from the Revenue Commissioner requesting that the name of the Pensioner Mr.
H. Devaiparyanachar, late Sub Registrar of Mudigere may be changed to Sri Dayanidhigalu in the Pension Payment Orders and that he may also be exempted from personal appearance Submitted. Before the name can be altered in the Pension Payment Order the change of name should be approved and the same published in the Gazette also. This question perhaps be dealt with in the G. M.
Branch. But it may be submitted that Mr. M. A. Narayana Iyengar, late Deputy Commissioner who now goes by the name of Sri Vasanandaji has been drawing his pension in his old name.
Whether this pensioner under reference may not be asked to follow suit is for Consideration

As regards his second request the pensioner is exempted from personal appearance on the production of a life certificate. (Art 516 M.S.R.) But under art.
517 (b) M.S.R personal attendance is necessary once in a year at least. The exemption requested thus for appears therefore to be exemption from personal attendance even once in a year. On principle the grant of such an exemption does not appear to be correct. The Comptroller may perhaps be consulted as to whether any one has been so exempted in the past. The other alternative to get exemption from personal appearance (even once in a year) is to draw the pension through a duly authorised agent (art 518 M.S.R.)

M
22.6.24 There is no valid objection to change of name, provided it is recognized by Govt & permitted, and it enters all public records. Publication in the Gazette is also necessary. As regards exemption generally from personal attendance, owing to the grave risks involved in the disbursements of pensions the Govt of India have considerably strengthened their rules & such relaxation, except through the agency of recognized banks collecting the pension who have executed an indemnity bond in favour of Govt, is strongly undesirable.
